

HHS ACBSA Recommendations from January 2006 meeting

The ACBSA recommendations state that the HHS Secretary must take immediate steps to establish national recognition of the blood and plasma systems (collection, processing, distribution, and use) as key elements of the critical infrastructure under the HHS plan. Click here to continue