

The U.S. Strategy for Pandemic Influenza Implementation Plan

On May 3, 2006, U.S. President George Bush released the National Strategy for Pandemic Influenza Implementation Plan. The Plan describes critical actions that have or will occur to help ensure the United States is prepared for a possible Influenza Pandemic. The Plan expands on the details released by President George Bush on November 5, 2005. The Plan covers: U.S. Government Planning for a Pandemic; Federal Government Response to a Pandemic; International Efforts; Transportation and Borders; Protecting Human Health; Protecting Animal Health; Law Enforcement; Public Safety and Security; and Institutions: Protecting Personnel and Ensuring Continuity of Operations. This plan can be found at http://www.whitehouse.gov/homeland/nspi_implementation.pdf.
